Abstract

Differential inequalities, lower bounds, and monotonicity properties of the zeros (especially of the largest zero) of associated Laguerre and Hermite polynomials are given.